

Tourist Spot name

Umm Al Quwain National Museum

Short Description

This 250-year-old landmark was previously the Royal family's residence, known as the Umm Al Quwain Fort at the time. It is now the UAE's official museum. This museum displays the history of the UAE in one spectacular castle, with visitors ranging from GCC expats to school field excursions. The museum houses a priceless collection of artifacts unearthed from adjacent sites. They transport you back in time and assist you in gaining a better grasp of UAE culture and heritage.
